

Academic Promotion Policy

Section 1 - Purpose

(1) This policy provides promotion pathways for RMIT University to recognise and reward the achievements of academic staff who demonstrate:

- a. sustained excellence in performance across the domains of academic activity outlined in the Enterprise Agreements
- b. ongoing and positive contribution to the achievement of RMIT's vision and strategic goals
- c. workplace behaviours that reflect the RMIT values, equity principles and ethical standards.

Section 2 - Overview

(2) The policy provides the framework and principles underpinning the promotion of eligible academic staff by:

- a. ensuring an effective and efficient process which is fair and equitable
- b. providing a single, annual promotions cycle with the flexibility of out-of-round promotions when required
- c. recognising a broad definition of academic contribution that allows for diversity in talents and achievement, and flexibility in career paths
- d. providing clear information responding to the criteria against which promotion applications are considered
- e. providing an avenue for staff to have promotion decisions reviewed
- f. fostering a culture of performance excellence.

Section 3 - Scope

(3) This policy applies to full-time, part-time, continuing or fixed term academic staff employed by RMIT University in Melbourne and Vietnam who meet the prescribed eligibility requirements for academic promotion.

(4) This policy does not apply to casual academic staff, vocational educational or professional staff.

Section 4 - Policy

Principles

(5) RMIT commits to a fair, transparent and consistent promotions framework.

(6) The promotions framework is based on:

- a. objective determinations, with decisions based on evidence of merit and impact
- b. equal promotion opportunity for all staff that does not discriminate on the grounds of gender, pregnancy, ethnicity, marital status, disability, sexual preference, transgender status, political or religious beliefs, or age

- c. due recognition of the diversity of academic roles, practice and career trajectories
- d. assessment of Achievement Relative to Opportunity through consideration of fractional appointments and other work circumstances, personal circumstances, or both
- e. alignment with the RMIT strategy.

(7) RMIT will ensure information to support applicants for academic promotion is clear, current and relevant.

Schedule and Eligibility

(8) Opportunity for academic promotion will be:

- a. available for applicants to level B at any time
- b. run annually for academic levels C, D and E and structured to enable the announcement of promotions effective as of 1 January of the following year
- c. permitted outside of the scheduled promotion round only in exceptional circumstances.

(9) Unless an exemption has been granted under the relevant procedure, academic staff will not be eligible to apply for promotion in the year immediately following an unsuccessful application.

(10) Promotion determinations are made to the level immediately above the applicant's substantive classification.

(11) In exceptional circumstances the Vice-Chancellor may determine that it is in the best interests of RMIT for promotion to a higher level to be considered.

Appeals

(12) Applicants may lodge an appeal against an application decision or a promotion outcome on the grounds specified in the Academic Promotion Appeal Procedure.
