- a. testamurs for University awards
- b. Statutes or Regulations approved by Council
- c. other documents which require the affixing of a common seal.

11. Authorisation by the Chancellor, Deputy Chancellor(s) or Vice-Chancellor

(1) The Chancellor, Deputy Chancellor(s) or the Vice-Chancellor may direct that the common seal be affixed to a document if the University Secretary is not available to direct the affixing of the seal.

(2) If the common seal is affixed in accordance with section 11(1), the Chancellor, Deputy Chancellor(s) or Vice-Chancellor must, as soon as practicable, report to Council on the fixing of the common seal and the reason for it.

12. Affixing and attestation

(1) Where the common seal of the University is affixed to a document other than a testamur it is attested by two (2) members of Council or by one (1) member of Council and the University Secretary.

(2) Where the common seal of the University is affixed to a testamur it is attested by the Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor and/or University Secretary (with at least two (2) of the signatories).

(3) The University Secretary maintains a record of all documents to which the common seal of the University has been affixed.

Part 3. Council

13. Composition of Council

(1) Subject to section 11 of the Act, Council must, from time to time determine the number of members of Council. (Section 76 provides for the composition of the Council until an order in Council is made under section 63)

(2) Council members may be appointed and reappointed, in accordance with Schedule 1 of the Act.

14. Council Meetings

(1) Except as provided by University legislation, Council meetings must be called and conducted as determined by Council.

Part 4. The Academic Board

15. Membership of the Academic Board

(1) The Academic Board comprises the members prescribed by the Regulations.

16. Functions of the Academic Board

(1) Without limiting the generality of the powers and duties conferred or imposed upon it by the Act, the Academic Board:

- a. approves the requirements for all higher education and vocational education including Higher Education Degrees by Research awards conferred by the University and reports decisions to Council
- b. develops, reviews and approves academic and research policies and procedures and reports decisions to Council

Part 5. Awards

Division 1 - Awards

18. Conferring Awards

(1) Council may confer any award currently approved by the Academic Board.

(2) If Council confers any award, the University may issue a testamur for the degree, diploma, certificate, licence or other award.

Division 2 - Revocation of Awards

19. Revocation of awards

(1) Subject to section 19(2) of this Statute, Council may revoke an award if:

- a. the award has been conferred as the result of an administrative error
- b. it is satisfied that the relevant award has been obtained by a person as a result of fraud
- c. in the case of an honorary degree, the recipient of the honorary degree no longer satisfies the criteria referred to in Part 8 Division 2 of this Statute, or
- d. the Student Conduct Board, or other person, after hearing a charge under the Student Conduct Regulations makes a recommendation to Council that an award should be revoked.

(2) Except where a recommendation has been made under section 19(1)d), where Council determines that a prima-facie case exists for revoking an award under section 19(1), Council must establish a committee (the committee) to investigate the facts and to make a recommendation to Council based upon the findings of the committee.

(3) The committee will be constituted and conducted in accordance with the Regulations. Where upon consideration of the findings and recommendation of the committee Council is satisfied that an award has been conferred by fraud, administrative error, or in the case of an honorary degree, the recipient no longer satisfies the criteria referred to in Part 8 Division 2 of this Statute, Council may revoke that award.

(4) Upon an award being revoked by Council, the Academic Registrar (or University Secretary in the case of an honorary degree) notifies the person to whom the award was issued of the decision and that person is required to return to the University the testamur or other document issued in respect of that award.

(5) This Statute applies to awards conferred or granted whether before or after the date of commencement of this Statute and includes awards granted by the Phillip Institute of Technology, Melbourne Institute of Textiles or any other entity which has merged with or is now, or may in the future be, otherwise incorporated in the University.
